2010-2011 NOMINATION GUIDELINES

HOW BOOKS ARE CHOSEN:

A committee searches out books from many sources. Nominations are sought from interested members of the community through a nomination form sent to participants, printed in the News & Views newsletter and posted on the Michigan Reading Association's web site (www.michiganreading.org). A final determination of nominees, divided by grade levels, is assembled into a Great Lakes Great Books packet.

HOW BALLOTING IS DONE:

Great Lakes Great Books Packets are distributed at the MRA Annual Conference, mailed to MRA local council presidents, MRA Board and Committee Chairs, placed in the News & Views newsletter and posted on the MRA web site. Packets include the previous year's winners, certificate master and a ballot. Ballots are due at the end of January.

HOW WINNERS ARE ANNOUNCED:

The winners are announced at the Librarian/Literature Lover's Luncheon at the MRA Annual Conference, printed in the News & Views newsletter and posted on the MRA web site. The results are also communicated to publishers and authors of winning books.
